

I am delighted to write a recommendation on behalf of Amanda Brown. I met Amanda a year ago when I was the Producing Artistic Director of Actor's Express Theater in Atlanta before I relocated back to New York City to direct the new Off Broadway musical FRANKENSTEIN. Amanda would be a tremendous asset to any team but most especially a team that interacts with the public. She is a charismatic, vibrant, poised and articulate lady. I have always been impressed with her meticulous preparation and attention to detail. I offer Amanda my highest recommendation. If you need further information do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

I have been fortunate to know and work with Amanda over the past year. In that time, she has shown tremendous passion and drive for each project she has tackled, for the company she has run and for each public event she has participated in. Her energy is unbridled and her strong on-air personality is complemented by a quick wit and underlying intelligence. It is uncommon to find all these attributes in one person, and Amanda carries it off with poise and strength.

I have seen Amanda simply take over an event - her charisma is beguiling and her ability to get candid comments from people is remarkable. She would be a tremendous asset to any organization.

Please feel free to contact me for further comment or for more information.

Dear Amanda,

I just wanted you to know that it was a real pleasure having you on our program. Your energy is contagious and your passion for what you do is obvious. The thing that really made it a great segment is how comfortable you are behind the microphone; you could have easily been the one giving the interview rather than the guest. You've made it easy for me as the segment director. Thanks again, Amanda!

Happily,
